NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SIXTY

REMINIS

As the reality of this school year fades into memories and we bid good-bye to these hallowed halls, our experiences and acquaintances will grow dim.

Thus, we, the Class of 1960, feel justly proud to be able to place before you the SMITHSONIAN. Within this volume is the story and picture record of events, friends, teachers, and everything that has made the past school year a reality. The 1960 SMITHSONIAN has aimed to highlight the most important activities of the year, in the hope that it will waft sweet REMINISCENCES in the years to come of the happy days spent at Smith.

His earnest influence, sympathetic understanding, and deep devotion to the highest interests of the student body have permanently enshrined Mr. J. A. McCoy in the hearts of all.

We esteem him highly for his versatility and patience as a teacher, counselor, and friend.

Because we appreciate his lofty character and emulatory leadership, we respectfully dedicate the 1960 SMITHSONIAN to . . . MR. JUNIUS ALPHONSO McCOY.

ADMINISTRATION

Our Principal

Mr. E. E. Miller, you have been a symbol of strength during the years we, the class of 1960, have been at E. E. Smith. For your help and inspiration, we shall remain eternally grateful and we shall always endeavor to reach and surpass the high goals which you inspired in us.

Learning under you, observing your interest in us, your patience with us, your knowledge and understanding of us has instilled in us a desire to make you ever proud of us as we are of you.

Our Secretary

Countless are the number of times that we have received encouragement and inspiration from our secretary, Mrs. M. H. Johnson.

During our four years at E. E. Smith, you have served not only as an administrator, but also as a friend to each of us--always ready to lend a helping hand to anyone. For this you will always be remembered.

Our Counselor

Miss C. L. Thompson--To always hold in memory; to always be grateful to for your tenderheartedness and understanding. Many times we have come to you with our problems, and have always found in you the strength to overcome them and to continue with new zeal. Your wise guidance and understanding will always be a part of us as we leave this school to face new problems and obstacles.

Last Will And Testament

We the E. E. Smith High School Senior class, of nineteen-hundred and sixty, in the county of Cumberland, and in the state of North Carolina, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath our last will and testament.

To Mr. Miller we leave our sincere appreciation for every thing he has done for us.

To the faculty, without whose guidance and understanding we could not have made it, we leave our heartfelt thanks and deepest gratitude.

To the Juniors we leave the reputation of the class of 1960, in hope that you will be able to measure up to our standards.

To the Sophomores, our little brothers and sisters, we leave our sympathy and the thought that 1962 will be here soon.

The following members of the class wish to leave a few personal possessions to certain specified underclassmen.

Virginia Nesbitt wills her ability to do exercise to Helen Manning.
Shady McBride leaves her expansive vocabulary to Ruby Burney.
Barbara Farlow wills her poise and sophistication to Elgene McLaurin.
Emma Wormley wills her typing ability to Michael Anders.
Vevernease Johnson wills her Alto Sax position to Sylvia Pindle.
Troy McMillan wills his typing ability to Arthur Davis.
Willie Holmes wills his friendly personality to Marlyn Walker.
Brenda Yarboro wills her band determination to Vivian Graham.
Resna Allen wills her ability to be liked to Judith Wilkins.
Willie Tigs wills his typing ability to Nancy McMillan.
Donald LaHuffman wills his seat in the auditorium to Bill Moore.
Elsie McDougald wills her personality to Gloria Judd.
Claralene Gordon wills her geometrical ability to Erma Patterson.
Barbara Alexander wills her beautiful voice to Patricia Regis.
Kenneth Scott wills his ability to give parties to Chessley Robinson.
Mary Brewington wills her lady-like qualities to Bertha Williams.
Gwendolyn Gainey wills her cheerleading suit to Dorthy Bullock.
Eva McEachern wills her position in the Glee Club to Westra Johnson.
George Lowery wills his right hand with a baseball mit to Theodore Howard.

The Last Of The Freshmen

September 4, 1956 was historic day for E. E. Smith, for on that day the class of '60 entered to begin its four years' journey. This great exodus was similar to that of a big, bustling harbor, where people were boarding ships for journeys all over the world, but on this day, September 4, 1956, two-hundred and seventy two enthusiastic students boarded the liner--Reminiscence for the land of Realism.

They began the voyage by adjusting to their new surroundings which was to be their home for the next four years. After adjustment, they began to explore and to take part in different activities aboard, such as singing in the glee club, participating in the dramatics club, the cheering squad, the band, and sports. Soon many formed the core of these organizations and were accredited as being outstanding. But life aboard was not all play and no work and soon many found it to be so. "The price of wisdom is above rubies," Old TestamentJob xxviii, 18.

On the third year of the voyage, this ship docked at an isle for an enchanting evening of gaiety, melodious music, and dancing. Many said afterward they could have danced all night. This event climaxed three years of sailing.

The fourth year of the voyage was destined to be the most eventful. The passengers had awaited this year filled with anxiety, anticipation, and joyfulness for this year the voyage would be ended. Many said in their moments of reverie they could faintly hear strains of 'God of Our Father' which would greet them when the voyage was finally over. However, Fate had so ordained it, that many, who had embarked upon the voyage four years ago, had been caught up in the sands of time, so that not all remained.

The Reminiscence made several more stops before reaching its destination. The last and most important stop came on June 1, 1960. Everyone disembarked and streamed toward the shore where each went his separate ways: some to happiness, others to success and others

This is an authentic report written aboard the liner Reminiscence.

Shady R. McBride, Historian

Tune.. "Climb Every Mountain"

Smith, though we're leaving,
No more to share
All the joys and sorrows,
We whisper a prayer.

Though we have mastered
Ev'ry feat and woe,
We will still go forward
With thy light aglow.

CHORUS

A light that will shine
As the love that you give,
Every day of our lives
For as long as we live.

The time has come when we must part
From that unfaltering trust we hold in our hearts.
Dear Smith, your love we'll always cherish
For it will neither die nor perish.

We have shared our sorrows and our joys yet--
And together we solved the problems we met.
With heavy hearts and tears of sadness
We must depart from our years of gladness.

We must face life's future whatever it may bring,
And make the best everything.
We must eat of the bitter, and eat of the sweet,
Conquer the foes, which we must meet.

We'll long remember you in all we do.
To you, dear Smith, we promise to be true.
We'll fight as soldiers on the battle-field,
We'll strive, seek and yet not yield.

'Till we see the face of the rising sun,
'Till we know our battle is won,
We'll wave the banner o'er land and sea,
Dear Smith, we know we'll never forget thee.

Class Prophecy

The big day was finally here! Yes, just 4 hours and 45 minutes from now, June 12, 1985, is to be held the large "reunion" of the graduating class of 1960 of E. E. Smith Senior High School. Smith graduates of that class all over the world have made preparations to attend this great event.

At the Laddie P. Bell Memorial Hospital in Washington, D. C. where Misses Elnita Cogdell and Betty Jackson are head nurses and I, Miss Eva McEachern, am surgical nurse, plans have been made for substitutes who will take over while we are away.

Everyone is excited, for this will indeed be a memorable day for all of us.

On my way to the airport, I wondered if the aims and ambitions of my fellow classmates had been accomplished. But, finally, the answers to the many questions that raced through my mind would soon be known, for I had now reached the airport.

As I boarded my plane, I took a glance at the pilot, and though his face wore a mature and sophisticated look, I knew instantly who it was. Yes, you guessed it! Arthur Pindle. We talked for a while before the plane began to take its flight, and I learned from him that his high school pal, Kenneth Scott, was now a research chemist at Cape Canaveral. Pindle, of course, could not attend the reunion because of his job, but he sent his best regards.

My flight to North Carolina was one full of reminiscing, wondering and impatient waiting. When my plane finally got there, I saw that things had really changed since I'd been away. As I walked down the street through the spring rain, I saw tall buildings where only small ones used to be.

I approached the school--the place where our lives had been molded. Here it stood--unchanged, only a little older than I remembered. I walked slowly up the walk, and ascended the steps of the place to which I had come so many times. The familiar halls were quiet, and I was led to the auditorium. Though the auditorium was packed, there was another hour before we would be welcomed by the principal of E. E. Smith Senior High School, now Mr. Joseph David Daniels. We were introduced to a lady whom he called the "Greatest History Teacher" in North Carolina, and I knew then that it could be no one else but Shady McBride.

Our attention was turned to the door where in came Miss Elsie McDougald and Mr. Ray Coleman who had T V Shows of their own in Hollywood, California. I learned by them that we were to be entertained with musical selections by Miss Barbara Alexander who was a partner to Johnny Nash on Broadway. Miss Harriett McAlister, one of the greatest cosmetologists out west, entered the auditorium with Miss Resna Allen, who was now a noted psychiatric social worker in the West Indies. It was really a pleasure to see these old faces again. We sat there for awhile, everybody talking together about old times when five distinguished ladies walked in. They were Misses Viola Chapman, Wilma Highsmith, Carolyn Gilbert, and Jane Hattersen who were all teachers at Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia.

It was now time for the reunion program to begin. Dr. J. D. Daniels' welcome was one that made us all feel that we really were welcomed back to our old "Alma Mater".

Among those who entertained us were the "Four Lads": James Williams, Odell Currie, Willie Holmes and James Brown---One of the most popular singing groups since the "Drifters" 25 years ago. Miss Jacquelyn Thorne, America's greatest female doctor and Miss Louetta Brown, a laboratory technician at Columbia University were guest speakers.

We were given music by the North Carolina College Choir, which was under the direction of Miss Mary Brewington. But to my surprise, Miss Joanne McLaurin, now singing alto with the Norman Noboff choir, sang a wonderful solo.

Among others present were Dr. Thomas McLaurin, now President of Yale University and Professor Charles McMillan, who is now a French teacher at Morehouse College. Miss Carolyn Singletary and Mr. Douglas Gilmore are also French instructors, but are at "Spivey University". Incidentally, Charles Patterson, a photographer for the R. Thomas Observer (founded by Robert Thomas) was taking pictures of all of the people who were present.

After the main features were over, we were taken to the cafeteria where we were fed a wonderful dinner, served by Misses Doris Fuller, chief cook, and Brenda Yarboro, her assistant.

This wonderful day came to an end and we looked at this place to which we came -- the place which had held our laughing, our growing and our loving. We are now sad, for we realize that the "echoes of our laughter, our heartaches, and our love have died with our leaving. And only we know now, how important it all was to us then French, English, physics.

But then we had to depart, for we all have businesses of our own.

Our Student Council

President - Kenneth Scott; Vice-President - Arthur Pindle; Secretary - Patricia Regis; Assistant Secretary - Judith Wilkins; Treasurer - Sylvia Pindle; Business Manager - Thomas Berrien; Campaign Manager - Donald LaHuffman.

The main objective of the Student Council has been to serve the student body. In our democratic society the government of the people has always worked toward serving the people.

The objectives which were outlined by the Student Council for the year 1959-60 have been thoroughly exercised. I take great pleasure in saying that this organization has truly been very effective.

The guidance rendered to us by Miss C. L. Thompson really inspired us to rise to the heights that we have accomplished. We wish to extend heartiest thanks to Miss Thompson.

In conclusion, I advocate that if the future Student Council will acquire the confidence and support of the student body, this organization will reach higher heights and uphold the standards of this great organization.

Miss Homecoming

The title of Miss E. E. Smith for the school year 1959-60 was captured by Miss Mae Frances Freeman. She is a member of the 12-2 class, sponsored by Miss C. L. Thompson.

Her attendants were (from left to right):

Miss Queen Felder - a member of 12-3, sponsored by Mrs. M. L. Spivey.

Miss Patricia Jerals of Mrs. D. E. Lane's homeroom.

Miss Mae Frances Freeman.

Miss Rita Newton, who is a member of Mrs. I. C. Fowler's 12-1 homeroom.

Miss Ann McMillan - a member of the 11-2 class, sponsored by Mrs. C. L. Massey.

Our Golden "Bulls"

With a record of 5 wins and 4 losses, the "Golden Bulls" of E. E. Smith Senior High School ended another victorious season on the grid-iron. Their success is attributed to the very capable leadership of Coaches D. T. Carter and D. S. Kelly.

The "Bulls" co-operated whole-heartedly with their co-captains William Shipman, John Mebane, and Connie Boykins. The other senior players were William Council, William Jones, Montague Thompson, Malcolm Foy, James Brown, David Daniels, Lawrence Shipman, Robert Thomas, and James Williams.

William Shipman and Connie Boykins are to be especially commended for securing the honor of being selected as players in the Shrine Bowl game. William Shipman was again outstanding by being selected All-State End.

Basketball

Although our varsity exemplified the highest of school spirit, in most cases they were defeated. Even then, though, their performance was very good.

The outstanding senior players were Connie B. Boykins, Charles Patterson, and William (Cannon) Shipman (also selected to the All-State).

Baseball

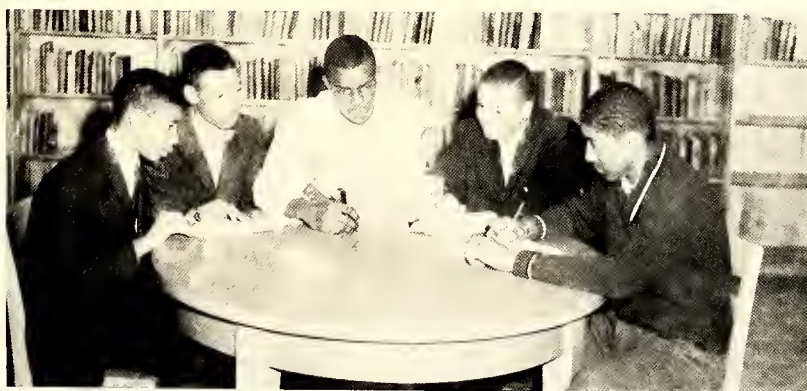

The "Bulls" put their best foot forward this year, beginning their season with a 7-0 record. They are again putting in their bid for the State Crown, as in previous years. This year, Robert Drake, the only senior on the team and whose batting average is .599, has truly led them to victory.
